A new wellness program is coming soon!

We are excited to announce our new partnership with Wellable as Vermeer Great Plains' wellness program provider effective January 1, 2027!

Wellable offers an award-winning platform with wellness challenges and activities geared to help you focus on improving your overall health and wellbeing – all while earning incentive awards!

Vermeer Great Plains will continue to offer employees and their spouses the opportunity to qualify for a Wellness Incentive, which will complement the medical plan in which you are enrolled*.

For more details, visit vermeer.millercares.com.

*Although employees and spouses are not required to participate, only those who do so will receive the wellness incentive.
